#BIGV21 Welcome to Round 15 of the 2021 Big V season.

Round 14 was a disappointing round for the Venom with only the D1W having a solid win over Warrmanbool Mermaids 65-49.

The D1M went don't down to the Camberwell Dragons 66-50 and the YL1M doing the same against the Dragons 80-61

The YL1W had a shock loss to cellar dwellers Eltham Wildcats 82-58

A tough round for both men's teams with the Senior men and Youth League Men playing their respective competitions ladder leaders the Keysborough Cougars and the Casey Cavaliers. The Senior Women face a must win game against the Camberwell Dragons and the Youth League Woman have a chance to bounce back also playing Camberwell

We would also like to congratulate Brian Moore on playing his 300th game this weekend

WARRANDYTE VENOM BIG V WOMENS TEAM WILL BE SUPPORTING THE FIGHT MND CAMPAIGN WHEN THEY PLAY ON SUNDAY JULY 4TH AT WARRANDYTE STADIUM.

All the players, coaches and team managers have purchased socks, which they will be wearing to support the fight against MND as a part of the Sock It 2MND event. In supporting this cause the team are ensuring that there is on going research to find effective treatments and hopefully a cure for MND in the future.

Please wear a blue item of clothing to show your support on the day.

If you would like to find out more or make your own contribution to the cause please visit the following website.
