Warrandyte Youth League Recap and Preview

Round 7 was not great for the Big V Venom teams so lets start with the Youth League Woman who played a good game against Frankston but were unable to prevail, going down 71-58. Once again Eilish Feehan left it all on the floor with 16pts and 14 rebounds.

This they face 8th placed Pakenham in a very winnable game to get them back in the winners circle. Players to watch from Pakenham are Ebony Sans and Alahna Arnason

Last round saw the Youth League Men play two home games. One against ladder leaders, the Camberwell Dragons and the next second placed Frankston Blues. It was easy to see why the Dragons are 10 an 0 as they thoroughly outclassed the Venom winning 112 -50. The next game against the Blues was closer and the boys played with great spirit but their 20 to 6 first quarter was too big a hole to dig themselves out of eventually going down 65-45. Lachlan Sinclair battled hard against the Blues with 13pts. Marc Theodore and Ben Galea were valiant against Camberwell with 12 and 13 points.

This week they face Collingwood who sit in 7th with 4 Wins and 6 losses. If all the pieces click for the Venom they should be able to chalk up a win. The Venom will need to be on guard for top scorer Lachlan Maddern and keep Kuich Gatwech off the glass

Warrandyte Division 1 Recap and Preview

Round 7 was a top of the table clash between the Venom and the Sherbrooke Suns in an great game. The Div 1 women were let down by a 23-5 horror 2nd quarter were they could not find the bottom of the net. Battling hard for the Venom were Ellen Patterson(13pts), Michaela Kuen(10pts) and Eilish Feehan(10pts)

This week they face the 7th placed Craigieburn Eagles in an away game (2wins,4 losses) but they shouldn't be underestimated especially with players like Monika Lennon and Nicola Stewart

Last week the Division 1 Men played arch rivals the Bulleen Boomers in an epic but ultimately heartbreaking game going down 88-75. Matt Scammell was a welcome return from injury with 18 points and sharp shooter Mitch Hawley was steady with 15 points but if they want to win games the bench will have to lift.

This week they have two home games against the 7th placed Bellarine Storm on Saturday and the 11th placed Collingwood Allstars on Sunday. Both games are winnable for the Venom if things go to plan but they have to lock down Max Kos and Lewis Varly to have a chance. In Collingwood they have to handle the ever young Manny Hendrix who can put in a monster performance if let off the chain
