Warrandyte Youth League Recap and Preview

Round 9 was another disappointing round for the Youth League women going down to Geelong United 67-60. Geelong really dominated the boards 55 to 35. Kayla Murphy played well with 18 points as did Alannah Poulton with 11 points but Geelong were really able to put the breaks on Eilish Feehan restricting her to only 6pts despite her 12 boards. Saturday night they face the Collingwood All Stars in a very winnable game but will have to try and play a strong defensive game across the board as the Allstars have many scoring options. The Sunday will have a much bigger challenge as they face 3rd place Bulleen. Bullen have some strong players especially Lily Carmody inside and Aleesha Cadee from outside

Last week the Venom Youth League Men were thoroughly outclassed by the undefeated Camberwell Dragons 128-58. Harry Barnes and Ben Galea led the way for the Venom with 18 and 10 respectively but injuries have meant that they really need to improve inside the key as they are getting outplayed due to being forced “small ball” basketball. Sunday is another tough challenge in 4th placed Coburg who are having an excellent season with 8 wins and 4 losses. The Youth Men will have to watch out for Rex Page and Damien Watson

Warrandyte Division 1 Recap and Preview

Last week the Division 1 Women faced the Western Port Steelers in what was an 84 to 57 point loss. Things never really clicked for the Venom except for a strong first quarter but they let themselves down in the second only scoring 9 points and were never able to get back into the game even though Eillish Feehan, Ellie Locke and Christine Wylie all managed to get into double figures they were unable to lift the rest of the team.

This week they have a bye and hopefully will give them a chance to refresh and regroup for the rest of the season

In Round 9 the Senior Men had a road trip to face the Shepparton Gators and unfortunately lost in a game of two halves and were competitive in the first half unable to score in the second half with only 17 points. Mitch Hawley battled hard with 15 points

This week they face Collingwood in a must win game to stay within reach of Finals. Though Collingwood have yet to win a game they will be desperate for one. As always they will need to stop Manny Hendrix as well as Dylan Webb
