Warrandyte Youth League Recap and Preview

Last round before the long weekend break saw the Youth League Women put in a clinic against Sherbrooke, winning 87-24. The Venom were ruthless in defense and we hope to see that kind of pressure for the rest of the season. 5 players were in double figures led by Jade Grybas with 20 points plus two players had strong double doubles, Kayla Murphy (19pts, 12 Rebs) and Jas McKennzie (11pts, 13 Rebs). In Round 12 the Venom have two away games. On Saturday night they face 9th placed Eltham in a very winnable game. Players to watch out for are Jamieson Weddle and the strong rebounding of Stephanie Fell. Sunday they face another challenge away in the 7nd placed Altona Gators. Again another winnable game and hopefully they come off the long break with plenty of energy. Watch out for one of the Leagues best scorers in Carly Cranston who is well on their way to becoming MVP for this season.

Round 11 was a tough one for the Youth League Men's team losing to an impressive Collingwood Allstars unit 100-73 away and then going to the Craigieburn Eagles the following day in a hard fought loss 63-47. Against Collingwood 4 players reach double figures with Ben Galea leading the way on 16 points. Against Craigieburn Michael Hardman left nothing on the floor with 22 points and 10 rebounds. This weekend the Youth League Men face a home game against 9th placed Geelong United. They have a good chance if they play their best but need to be aware of Jay Posterino and Jack Terrill. On Sunday they face a much bigger challenge in the 2nd placed Altona Gators. The pair of Jake Afoa and Marach Marach will be very dangerous.

Warrandyte Division 1 Recap and Preview

Last time the Division 1 women suited up they were outplayed in an away game by an strongly performing Bellarine Storm going down 84-54. Mollie Burke (19 points) and Ellen Pattison (11 points, 10 rebounds) were valiant but the team were unable to find the bottom of the net effectively.

This week they will need to do much better but do have the advantage of two home games. First up on Saturday night they face cellar dwellers the Craigieburn Eagles who will be desperate for a win to get off the bottom. Monika Lennon and Carly Cranston will fight for this to happen. On the Sunday they have a much stronger challenge against experienced performers in the 4th placed Western Port Steelers. If the Venom want to show their finals mettle beating them will go a long way. Wester Port have lots of options but watch out for the veteran Rachel Wansbrough and lead scorer Samantha Keltos

Round 11 saw another disappointingly close loss to the Bellarine Storm (90-86) in a game that just got away from them at the very end. This was despite a Blue Carpet worthy performance from Matt Scammell with a huge 32 points. Josh Uhr-Henry and Mitch Kerr-Reid were productive with 18 points(plus 16 rebounds) and 16 points respectively. This week they face the Coburg Giants (0W-12L) who will be desperately trying to get their first win of the season. If all of the Giants lineup can fire then this could be a danger game for the Venom. Keep an eye on Jamie Koutifides and Patrick McBrearty to try and springboard some wins for Coburg.
