Warrandyte Division 1 Recap and Preview

Last round was another disappointing round for the Senior Women's team going down a fast finishing Craigieburn Eagles 64-63. Solid performances from Michaela Kuen (14pts), Monique Stevens (10pts) and Mollie Burke (10pts) showed some bright spots for the Venom. Next up they faced finals bound Western Port in a spirited game but ultimately went down 74-61. Christine Wylie (15pts), Ellen Pattison(14pts) and Monique Stevens (12pts) led the way but the Steelers proved too good on the day.

This round sees the Venom have another bye and hopefully a regrouping to finish of the season strongly.

Round 12 didn't go great for the Venom Senior Men going down to a Coburg Giants team desperate for a win. The Giants rushed out of the blocks early putting in an impressive 1st quarter and the Venom were never able to reel in the deficit ultimately going down 82-73. Matt Scammell led the way with 22pts with strong backup from Mitch Hawley and Bryan Moore each with 16 points.

This week they have a home game against 5th placed Corio Bay who will want to maintain their position for the finals. The Venom will need to put the breaks on lead scorer Cohen Blythe and keep Lachlan Headlm off the boards to have a chance of securing a win.
