Warrandyte Youth League Recap and Preview

In Round 13 the Youth League Venom Women faced the Camberwell Dragons in a tough 55-48 point loss. Once again Kayla Murphy battled hard for her 12 points and 13 rebounds assisted strongly by Paula Pavic with 14 points.

This week they have two winnable games. The home game on Saturday night sees them face the 8th placed Geelong United with a 8 – 10 Win/Loss record. Geelong have lots of scoring options but keep an eye out Grace Spehar inside and Emmalyn Nekrep from range. On Sunday they have to back up against the Collingwood Allstars (4W/13L) in hopefully a chance to get another win before the end of the season. Containing Stephanie Da Silva and Alexa MacKey will go a long way towards this goal for the Venom.

Round 13 saw the Youth League Venom Men face off against 4th placed Coburg Giants. The Venom battled hard but ultimately went down 108-74. On a positive note 4 players were able to get into double figures, Michael Hardman(12pts), Harry Barnes(11pts), Darcy Watson(13pts) and Matthew Donald(15pts).

This week sees the Venom play two away games. First up they face Geelong United who currently sit 8th with a 6W/12L record. They'll need to keep an eye on Jay Posterino and Jack Terrill if they want to win this game. Next they face the Hume City Broncos who currently sit 7th with a 7W/12L record. League MVP contender Corey Fiddes will be a tough challenge to contain ,who will be ably assisted by Elijah-Taye Saifaleupolu

Warrandyte Division 1 Recap and Preview

Last week was a bye round for the Division 1 Women and another chance to regroup and try and make up some lost ground to make the finals

This week sees the Venom Senior Women face a big Challenge in second placed the Camberwell Dragons who currently have an 8 and 4 win/loss record. Players to watch out for Gemma Fyfe and Marnie Houghton who will want to ensure that Camberwell cement their spot in the finals.

Round 13 was another struggle for the Senior Men going down to the Corio Bay in a tight one 78-74. Mitch Hawley (14pts), Josh Uhr-Henry(16pts) and Harry Ayton (12pts) led the way. Next up they faced the RMIT Redbacks who recorded a 99-83 point win against the Venom. Matt Scammell scored an impressive 24pts assisted by Mitch Hawley (18pts) and Bryan Moore (18pts)

This week they face a newly reinvigorated Coburg Giants away who look to avoid relegation by recording another win to keep them off the bottom of the ladder. Once again they must contain Jamie Koutafides and Patrick McBrearty if they want to secure the win. On the Sunday they then face the Southern Peninsula Sharks in a tough but winnable game if they manage to get in sync. Watch out for MVP contender Dareon Jones as well as the ever reliable Matt Brassler
