In the Spotlight

We congratulate Tristan Forsyth (42pts, 17rbs) for making the Senior Men's All First Team Team for Round 14

In the Spotlight

We congratulate Shannon Powell Ross
(25pts, 13rbs, 10ast) for making the Senior Women's All First Team Team
for Round 14

This week in Youth League 2 Women

Round 13 saw the Youth Woman face off against ladder leaders, the Sherbrooke Suns. The Venom were let down by poor shooting, but Ellen Knight scored 15pts with Andreina Gammilonghi scoring 11pts and 12rbs.

This week they play the 6th placed Blackburn Vikings(4W-10L) in what should be an interesting game for the improving Venom side. Jasmin Greenwood(10.57ppg) and Sophie Ziebell(9.64ppg) lead the way for the Vikings but playing strong but not reckless defense and controlling the boards against them can see the Venom get over the line.

This week in Youth League 2 Men

Last week saw the Youth men play two games. The first was at home to the Craigieburn Eagles, in a game in which the scoreline(89-70 loss) didn't do justice to its quality. Cooper Servaas(18pts) led the way, backed up by Tyson MacKenzie(12pts) and Nathan Aikman(11pts).

On the Sunday they played away to the RMIT Redbacks in a see-sawing game but ultimately went down 80 to 64. Tyson MacKenzie once again stood up with 18pts, with another strong performance from Thomas Morgan(10pts, 18rbs).

This week Venom play away on the Sunday, making the long road trip to play Albury-Wodonga. The 9th placed Bandits(11W-8L) is another team trying to string some wins together to make a desperate push towards the finals and it won't be an easy game for the Youth League Men's team and expect this game to go down to the wire. The likes of Marcus La Spina(17.33ppg, 10.6rpg), Liam Brady(17.25ppg) and Brock Thompson(14.46ppg, 10.46rpg) won't go easy on the Venom.

This week in Division 1/2 Women

Last week saw the Venom face the Chelsea Gulls in an absolute arm wrestle of a game that went into overtime that was decided by the last shot of the game. The Senior Women eventually won the game, 78-76 in what could be a Finals preview. Shannon Powell Ross starred with a 25pts ,13rbs, 10ast triple double backed up by Emmie O’Nial(18pts,13rbs) and Ellie Locke(13pts, 10rbs).

Round 15 sees the Senior women face the Collingwood Allstars in what should be an interesting game. Maddie Geislinger(18.79ppg,18.79rpg) is having a great season and works well with Siobhan Mac Aodha(15.79ppg) but they really need the rest of the team to pull their weight especially in the rebounding stakes. This game may be tighter than the ladder positions might dictate but the Venom should come away with the win.

This week in Division 1 Men

Round 14 saw the Senior Men outperform a much higher rated team once again. The Venom ran over the Chelsea gulls to win the game 91-87, despite being down by 8 at the half. Tristan Forsyth earned himself an all first nomination with 42pts and 17 rebounds. Darreon Jones(23pts, 13rbs) and Dodo Elyazar(22pts) also had a major impact improving the Venoms chances at making a last-minute push to the finals.

This week the Venom play at home to the 5th placed Altona Gators(6W-8L) in a must win game. Samson Rockear (16.92ppg) and Brian Adams (15.57ppg) should lead the way, but the Senior men should not sleep on the rest of the Altona bench as they have shown they have quite a few players with the ability to score well into double figures. Dominating the offensive boards and making the most of second chance points will be key.
